PASTOR'S PEACE

Lent is over. Holy Week too. But in our continuing Easter season which extends over the next month memories of Palm Sunday and Resurrection Day linger. How wonderful to see us worshiping together in larger numbers and with fuller pews than two years of COVID pandemic have often allowed. Our Easter hymn-singing was loud and resonant. So were our choir's anthems. Yet more memorable still for me were the testimonies of three young confirmands, Kaitlyn Isaacs, Dylan Stull, and Angel Staten.

After completing two years of confirmation study and many more years in Sunday School, our trinity of confirmands spoke each in turn, either on Palm Sunday or Easter Day, about what their Christian faith means to them. They also shared how our St. Paul congregation and its ministry together has positively impacted their lives, not only through classroom teaching and periodic sanctuary worship but also in personal conversations with teachers and pastors and by mission trips undertaken allowing them to put Christian faith in action. In each case also, our confirmands' families had longstanding ties to St. Paul Church and they were proud of this fact. They displayed respect for all that had been imparted to them by God, by church, by school, and by family. In times like our own which can be so crass and cynical, what a blessing to hear their youthful perspective. The thoughtful, caring, and faithful words they offered honored the Christian pulpit in which they stood.

I don't doubt that our confirmed youth are going to face big challenges on the road of life ahead. There are likely to face temptations that if not resisted could prompt them to end up despairing and cynical too. Yet if they can hold fast to the Christian faith that was in such abundant view as they shared their testimonies, life doesn't have to be dark and dismal. They will continue to experience the rewards of true faith in Jesus Christ who in life, death, and resurrection has assured us of his company, help, and blessing in life's journey, no matter how rocky the road can get. While the Christian life never comes without cost, it is never without its more than compensating joys.

I am proud of our three confirmands. Along with the confirmands' own families, we—their greater church family—should be as well. I want to thank our confirmands' families for letting us be a part of their children's lives. I also want to thank members of our church family like Pastor Cheryl Schalm, Sunday Confirmation teacher Doreen Thompson, and all the Sunday School teachers over the years for sharing their own Christian faith and wisdom with our confirmands. Kaitlyn, Dylan, and Angel are now adult members and communicants of our ministry together. May God bless them and us all as we continue to witness in faithful word and positive deeds to the saving, redeeming love of the resurrected Christ.

~ Shalom, Pastor Geoffrey Drutchas

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION EDITORIAL

As experienced by many women and acknowledged by Crosswalk Ministries, Mother's Day can bring a mix of emotions. There are women anticipating the birth of their first child, step-moms wondering what their place is, those who have lost their mother and are faced with grieving on Mother's Day, there are moms who encounter feelings of hurt because their children have turned from God, and those overwhelmed with pain from the loss of a child.

No matter what we may be facing this Mother's Day, we can turn to God and experience peace and healing through prayer. May the following prayer offered by Daniel Darling encourage your soul and speak life into your calling as a mom, son or daughter.

Dear Heavenly Father, we approach your throne on behalf of the mothers whom you have entrusted with the care of your most precious little ones. We thank you for creating each mom with a unique combination of gifts and talents. We thank you for the sacrifice of self each mom gives for her children. For the late nights spent rocking a colicky infant. For the hands calloused from washing, wiping, scrubbing, mixing, baking, stirring, hugging, patting, disciplining, holding, writing, erasing, painting, and pouring.

We thank you for the gift of time moms give for their kids, whether it's stay-at-home moms, working moms, and moms who have some combination of the two. We thank you for the flexibility of moms, for their tirelessness, their perseverance, and their devotion.

We pray You give each mom strength. Help her to see in every mundane task the eternal, cosmic significance that you place on motherhood. Help her to understand that the most radical, world-changing events may be happening anonymously in her home. Help her to forgive those who undermine her significance.

We especially pray for single moms, who must lean solely on You for the fathering of their children. We thank You that You're big arms surround children who may never know their earthly father. We also pray for mothers who never had the honor of bearing children, but whose nurturing extends to the many poor and needy who cross the threshold of their lives.

We ask You to be the daily bread of tired mothers. We ask You to be their living water. We ask You to be their source of spiritual and physical strength. We pray that the same grace that flowed from Father to Son to us in salvation will flow from mothers to their children. We pray that each mother rejects perfectionism and instead embraces the goodness of the gospel. We pray the rhythms of repentance and forgiveness shape every home.

Lord, give each mother a worshipful reverence of You, the Creator and Sustainer of life. Help each mother to rest in the knowledge that they are but stewards of Your children and that only Your Spirit can produce change into the hearts of each boy and girl. May each mother find rest in You.

Most of all, Lord, on this day in which we honor mothers, may we love and cherish the special women, whether present or now in Your eternal presence, who have born us, who have nurtured us, and who have prayed for our well-being. May our hearts overflow with gratitude to You, who formed and knitted each of us in a mother's womb. Amen

Happy Mother's Day!

~In Christ, Pastor Cheryl Schalm, Minister of Christian Education

"Beati-Dudes Surfs Up!" Will Serve as Summer Sunday School Theme

With summer quickly approaching Christian Education will begin recruiting Summer Sunday School teachers in May. Please consider giving an hour over the summer to share a fun and interactive message of Christ's love with the young people. All snacks, materials and curriculum (samples follow) will be supplied.

Curriculum samples: Hang 8, Dude, Synopsis: In his first sermon, called the Beatitudes, Jesus promised eight things to those who live in His ways. Objective: Kids will learn what the Beatitudes are; On your knees, Dude, Synopsis: Jesus said the poor in spirit, the humble, will receive the kingdom of heaven. David was humble and submitted to King Saul as Israel's leader. Objective: Kids will identify an area in their lives where they are prone to bragging, and will commit to being humble in that area this week; Tough break, Dude, Synopsis: Mourning is part of life, and no one likes to be sad, but Jesus promised that God will always comfort us. Objective: Kids will give something they are sad about to God in prayer.

All interested in teaching one Sunday (or more) over the summer should contact Pastor Schalm or sign the sheet located on the Welcome Center Desk to secure a Sunday.

To facilitate this, veterans are asked to complete a name card when they arrive and present it to one of the ushers. A prayer of thanks will also be offered for our veterans’ roles as valiant peacemakers. In keeping with Memorial Weekend tradition at St. Paul Church, there will be a flag procession at the start of our worship together.

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Room with a View Endowment Loan

It is with great pleasure that I announce that we have fulfilled our commitment to ourselves and paid back the $140,000 we borrowed from our Endowment Fund to complete the Family Room and Lavatory. As of April 1, 2022, the Church is debt free. It was Sunday, September 20, 2015, that the congregation voted to borrow the $140,000 from the Endowment Fund to complete the funding for the Room with a View Campaign. We had projected a fifteen-year payback of the loan and here we are only seven years later, and we have paid back the loan. This was only possible due to the support and donations of our membership. A special celebration is being planned for later this year. Thank You for your generosity and continued support. Dan Case -- St. Paul Treasurer

2021 Pictorial Directory

Final proofing of the 2021 Pictorial Directory has been completed. We anticipate the books will be available at the beginning of May. We apologize for the delay but with the holidays and UCD being shut down for a couple of weeks due to COVID the delay was unavoidable. St. Paul Communication Ministry.

As always they will be handed out prior to and after the Sunday Worship Services by the Deacons or available by calling the church Office at (313) 291-1221. St. Paul Communication Ministry.

The 30 Hour Famine

Members of Rock Hard in Faith Youth Fellowship and the Young Adult Ministry want to thank everyone who supported their 30 Hour Famine to raise money for Ukrainian relief, to purchase food for Fish & Loaves and to serve at the Trinity St. Mark's food pantry. Over $1,000.00 dollars was raised to aid in Ukrainian relief efforts, a truck full of groceries was purchased during a shopping spree to benefit Fish & Loaves, 25 boxes of food prepared for those in need and two dozen lunch bags packed to be given to Detroit's homeless by the Detroit Police Department.
